SUPER SMOOTHIES

A HHA PUBLICATOIN

DELICIOUS & NUTRITIOUS SMOOTHIES

These versatile beverages are portable, family-friendly, easy to prepare and modifiable for any taste or dietary preference. They are also a fun and simple way to build up your family's vitamin and nutrient intake.

How to make a super smoothie:

- Start with liquid - plant milk or water
- Chose what fruit and veg you want to add
- Add flax, nuts, nut butter or protein powder for protein content
- blend it all up and you're set with a delicious treat
- For a colder version freeze some of the fruit first or add ice cubes

On the following pages are a few of our favourites. Keep them simple until you are at least 1/2 way through the program and keep in mind that the more fruit you add the more sugar you add.

DELICIOUS SMOOTHIES

BASIC HEALTHY SMOOTHIE *

- 3/4 cup coconut milk (or another type of milk of your choice)
- A small handful of strawberries, raspberries or blueberries
- A good handful of raw spinach
- A squeeze of fresh lime or lemon juice

or

- 1 cup milk of your choice
- ½ avocado
- 1 kiwi
- 1 Apple
- 1 handful of spinach
- 2 T flax or chia seeds
- 1 scoop vanilla protein powder

Tropical smoothies

These smoothies are good ones to have after a workout because coconut water is rich in electrolytes and can help to replace lost fluids and minerals after exercising.

Smoothie No. 1.

- 1 cup coconut milk
- 1/2 mango or 1/2 cup chopped
- 1 banana
- 2 chunks of pineapple
- fresh turmeric or half a teaspoon of turmeric powder or ginger

Smoothie No. 2.

- 1 cup coconut milk
- 1 Carrot
- 1 orange
- 1/3 mango or handful of pineapple
- 1 frozen banana
- 2 Tablespoons chia seeds

Mango is a good source of beta-carotene, while the fibre in bananas will help the good bacteria in your gut to flourish. Bananas are also a source of tryptophan which aids relaxation and sleep. Pineapple assists digestion.

Red

- 1 cup milk of your choice
- 1 Apple
- Large handful of strawberries, cherries or raspberries
- 1/3 cucumber
- 2 Tablespoons flax or chia seeds
- 1/4 beetroot
- 1 scoop vanilla protein powder

Cherries, with their high fibre content, stimulate and cleanse the digestive system. They are also a natural source of melatonin, which helps to establish a healthy sleep cycle. Choose the darker cherries for their valuable mineral content (iron, magnesium and silicon).

Cashew nut smoothie

- 2 handfuls of cashew nuts
- 1 orange
- 1/2 fresh grapefruit
- 1 Teaspoon honey
- Sprinkle of cinnamon
- 1 banana
- 1 scoop vanilla or chocolate protein powder (optional)

The grapefruit in this smoothie helps to break down old toxins, while the cinnamon helps to stabilise blood levels.

Papaya and melon smoothie

If you frequently suffer from sluggish digestion, the papaya in this smoothie helps to cleanse the digestive tract and assists in the breakdown of food, particularly protein.

- 1/3 papaya
- 1/2 cup chopped melon
- 1 teaspoon sesame seeds or tahini paste
- 1 cup almond milk
- sprinkle of cinnamon.

Winter Citrus Smoothie

- 1 cup frozen mango chunks
- juice of 1 lemon
- 1/2 teaspoon ground turmeric
- 1/4 teaspoon ground cayenne pepper
- 3/4 cup fresh-squeezed orange juice
- 2 teaspoons fresh grated ginger
- 1 small raw red beet, chopped
- 1 cup frozen raspberries or cherries
- 1 orange, blood orange, or grapefruit, peeled
- 1/2 cup pomegranate juice

Chocolate Coconut Winter Smoothie

- 1/2 banana
- 1/4 cup (20 g) oats
- 1 Tablespoon peanut butter
- 1 Teaspoon dark cocoa powder or raw cacao powder
- 1 Tablespoon shredded coconut, optional
- 1/2 teaspoon vanilla extract
- 1 cup coconut milk
- 1 scoop chocolate or vanilla protein powder
- 1/2 teaspoon maple syrup (optional)

After blending this smoothie can also be transferred t to a small saucepan and heat over medium-low heat until just warmed through. Do not boil.
